ORDER: (Per the Honourable Smt.Justice T.Meenakumari)

This is a taken up case on the Telegram, dated 17.2.2006 sent by the petitioner seeking a direction in the nature of writ of mandamus to call for the records and remarks from the respondents as to her marriage with one R.Rajanikanth and protect her husband from possible retaliatory measures by her parents and four uncles.

The respondents have filed the counter contending that on 17.2.2006, the petitioner along with her husband Rajanikanth and the counsel came to the Begumbazar police station and gave a petition seeking police protection, but subsequently, they did not turn up. No report has also been given alleging any incident and in case the petitioner approaches the police station, the police personnel are ready to provide protection.

It is submitted across the Bar by the learned G.P. for Home that after lodging a petition seeking police protection, the petitioner did not turn up to the police station and in case, the petitioner requires any such police aid, they are ready to provide police protection and therefore, nothing survives for adjudication in this writ petition.

In view of the submission made by the G.P. for Home, We feel that no orders need be passed in this writ petition.

Accordingly, this W.P. is closed.
